

Question Night

No. 5

Can you explain the phrase, “that which is perfect is come” in 1 Corinthians 13:10?

Why are “the Beatitudes” called “the Beatitudes”?

Where does the name
come from?

What is your take on James 5:14 when it speaks of the sick calling for the elders to pray over him and anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord?

I know there are still some who practice anointing with oil today.

A lot of my friends at school say that you don't have to be baptized to be saved. However a verse in the Bible says, "He who believes and is baptized will be saved."

How should I respond?

Please explain why
we ignore Paul's words in 1 Cor. 11:5?

What is marriage about? What is a husband's role in his house? Is it ok for a husband to say nasty words to his wife? What advice do you have for a husband and wife who do not talk to each other, but live in the same house?

What does the Bible teach about tattoos and piercings?

Please teach us to give to the church. Is it a sin to come to church with empty hands when you earn a living?

Thank you.

What “day” is the writer referring to in Hebrews 10:25?
