

Mother's Day

Everyday Is
Mother's Day

“Honor your father and mother,” which is the first commandment with promise: “that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth.”

Ephesians 6: 2-3 (Exodus 20:12; Deut. 5:16)

Why are you here ?

For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.

Romans 15: 4

OLD TESTAMENT

Introduction to the

The Bible is from Genesis to Revelation, clearly revealing that God Himself is the ultimate author, and that the center and goal of history is found in Jesus Christ. The Old Testament is the foundation for the New Testament, and the sum of all history, and the Christian revelation.

Although Jewish and Christian scholars have used different terminology in classifying the books of the Old Testament, the Pentateuch (Genesis—Deuteronomy), Historical Books (Joshua—Esther), Poetical Books (Job—Song of Solomon, Lamentations), Major Prophets (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel), and Minor Prophets (Hosea—Malachi).

The Pentateuch, the first five books of the Bible, was the original Jewish law (the Law of Moses), especially by Jesus Himself (Luke 24:27). The Pentateuch is centered on Israel, and the life of earth's early inhabitants, including the origin of man, and the growth of human civilization (Gen.), redemption of man, and the sanctification of the world (Deut.). The historical books trace some one thousand years of Israelite history, from the fifteenth to the fifth century B.C. They may be conveniently considered under four periods.

- I. The Pre-Monarchic Period (from the time of Moses, until the selection of Saul as king until the death of Solomon)
- II. The Era of the United Monarchy (1 Sam. 8—1 Kings 11)
- III. The Era of the Divided Monarchy (1 Kings 12—2 Kings 25)

“And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house,

Deuteronomy 6: 6-7(a)

when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

Deuteronomy 6: 7(b)

And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.

Ephesians 6: 4

Therefore hear, O Israel, and be careful to observe it, that it may be well with you,

Deuteronomy 6: 3(a)

Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you;

Matthew 28: 19-20

The LORD our God, the LORD is one! You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.

Deuteronomy 6: 4-5

Jesus said to him, “You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the first and great commandment.

Matthew 22: 37-38

And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart.

Deuteronomy 6: 6

BLESSED ARE THE
PURE IN HEART

Now the purpose of the commandment is love from a pure heart, from a good conscience, and from sincere faith,

1 Timothy 4: 5

And you shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may be well with you,

Deuteronomy 6: 18(a)

Integrity is doing the right thing, even when no one is watching.

DO NOT COVET
BE CONTENT

Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness?
And what communion has light with darkness?

2 Corinthians 6: 14

And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever?

2 Corinthians 6: 15

And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God.

2 Corinthians 6: 16

And you shall remember that the LORD your God led you all the way these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you and test you,

Deuteronomy 8: 2(a)

WHY GOD?

My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience.

James 1: 2-3

But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing.

James 1: 4

to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not.

Now when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."

Matthew 4: 3

But He (Jesus) answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.' "

Matthew 4: 4

You should know in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens
you.

Deuteronomy 8: 5

And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons:

“My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD, nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;

Hebrews 12: 5

for whom the LORD loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives.”

Hebrews 12: 6

For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he may gain much, if God takes away his life?

Job 27: 8

A person is seen from behind, sitting on a dark wooden bench in a grassy field. The person is looking towards a bright, glowing light in the dark sky, which appears to be the sun or moon setting or rising. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?

Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

Matthew 16:26

Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophecy about you, saying:

Matthew 15:7

'These people draw near to Me
with their mouth,
And honor Me with their lips,
But their heart is far from Me.

Matthew 15: 7

And in vain they worship Me, Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'

Matthew 15: 8

So ?

Why are you here ?

“If you love Me, keep My commandments.”
