longer than people
do now?

the tower of Babel
would speak Spanish?

Did the Israelites get to rest on the Sabbath
when they were slaves?

Did the 10th plague
(death of the firstborn)
apply only to children (still living in their parents' households) or to all first born (even if they were adults)?

What is the Rabshakeh
(2 Kings 19:4)?

I have very secular coworkers with minimal to no Bible knowledge. They frequently hold conversations that flippantly include their severe misunderstandings of Scripture and true Christianity in a joking/mocking manner. With our office set-up, I cannot help but overhear them but am not really in the conversation. Is it missing an opportunity to tune them out and focus on my job or should I try to get myself involved and be in the minority facing on conversations with 5 to 6 aggressively confident atheists/agnostics? I fear that in the moment I could say something to turn them farther away from the Gospel, but by saying nothing I feel I am hiding my light that should be shining.

How do you get closer to God?

Would you discuss the benefits of a daily Bible reading program?

Any recommendations for how to have a productive Bible study? I feel like I'm jumping from one study to another with personal study, class at the building, and a public study. Don't feel that any are getting my best. Any suggestions for actually doing a beneficial study and truly learning the Word?

The Bible says that heaven rejoices over one sinner repenting, rather than 99 good people. So even after we repent, can we make God as happy again?
